Seattle Women's Summit

October 6, 2007

The Seattle Women's Summit gets to the heart of issues that matter to Seattle women through dynamic workshops, facilitated discussions, and an interactive resource fair. And it gives women the skills to advocate effectively for women's issues through trainings on communication, advocacy, and leadership. You won't want to miss this great day!

The information shared at the Summit helps guide the Seattle Women's Commission on its annual work plan and directly informs our policy recommendations.

Get involved! If your organization or company is interested in sponsoring or exhibiting at the Seattle Women's Summit, please call us at (206) 684-4537 or email Felicia.Yearwood-Murrell@Seattle.gov.
